Note: SME status is refreshed annually (at year end) based on the latest government data. Occasionally, this results in a change to the SME status. For example, an SME this year may grow to become a non-SME next year and be ineligible for ETSS for courses starting next year. In the event where government data is not available, the entity will be accorded non-SME status by default. The entity may submit a SME declaration via GoBusiness in EPJS if they find their SME status is inaccurate.

The SME determined at the course run start date will be used. Any changes to SME status is prospective; there is no backdating of the effective date for SME status changes.
