Associate Professor
GUAN CHONG
Director
SUSS Academy

Responding decisively to the shifting needs of today's workforce, the Singapore University of Social Sciences (SUSS) has embarked on a transformative journey with the launch of its SUSS Academy, formerly known as the Centre for Continuing and Professional Education (CCPE). With a strategic focus on forging impactful partnerships, SUSS Academy signifies the University's unwavering commitment to fostering personal and career growth while championing industry advancement and societal impact.

With an aim to empower the workforce for tomorrow's challenges, and in alignment with the Skills Demand for the Future Economy 2023/24 report by SkillsFuture Singapore, the SUSS Academy is dedicated to addressing skill shortages and empowering individuals to excel in Singapore's Care, Green and Digital Economy sectors.

As a leading adult learning and training provider with a focus on continuous learning, we offer multiple pathways for diverse learners to achieve personal goals to corporate successes. Playing a strategic role in local talent development, we seek to enhance development and employability of our learners, thus realising our SkillsFuture vision of a nation of lifelong learners.

“ I enjoy learning different things from different areas, so the Bachelor of General Studies programme really appealed to me. It has given me a lot of insights and systemic knowledge in areas that I would not have otherwise known about. I appreciate having the classes taught by experienced lecturers, and also learning about their real-world experience. It has also made me a more well-rounded person who can take on many perspectives.”
